Exhibitor Profiles

Schaller & Weber

The Schaller & Weber story begins nearly one hundred years ago with Ferdinand Schaller as an apprentice butcher and sausage maker in Stuttgart, Germany. Ferdinand passed the business down to his Grandson who is still operating his butcher shop in the Yorkville neighborhood of New York's Upper East Side. Schaller & Weber has become the city's go-to for authentic German meat and sausages. Today, the recipes and techniques that made Schaller & Weber a fixture on the tables of discerning New Yorkers, is the choice of people across the country who want traditional German sausages and cuts. Products presented at the roadshow comprise Schaller & Weber's best sold items.
